Need help trying to locate a runaway

My good friend Shannon Dueling's son ran away 2 days ago and they haven't heard anything form him. This is the 1st time he has ever done this and both of Austin's parents are really worried. Austin normally goes by AJ and hasn't been in trouble and as far as we know had no real reason to leave. Any help in locating him or letting us know that he is safe will be greatly appreciated. We live in Des Moines, IA and I am attaching a pic of Austin. Thanks for any help possible.
